VOLUNTEERS & DONORS, YOU'RE MAKING WAVES!

If you're looking for a bright spot amidst the uncertainty around us, look no further than right here. The impact we had in 2019 is only possible because you are a part of the Water Walkers crew, and we couldn't be more grateful.

This year looks a lot different than the last. But while how we support and serve in the short-term has changed, our mission has not. We're actively bringing hope to inner-city kids in the form of books, meals, school supplies, learning materials, and more. So that when life returns to normal, they will not have fallen behind, but will instead be ready to tackle any challenge with confidence and persistence. We couldn't do it without you.
